Mr. Hastings, in suming up, said his lordship would see that there was a contract to sell so shares of the Labuk Company. The question was whether the authority to do so was given in due cause.

In the course of a lengthy judgment for the delendant, with costs, his lordship said he felt convinced that no authority was given by the defendant for the sale of the 30 Labuk shares and he thought the plaintiffs had only themselves to blame if they dealt in the streets with irresponsible persons at odd corners, persons who had to run into chemists and other shops to write chits and sign documents. If share transactions were made in such a way those who were parties in such affairs had themselves to blame if losses resulted. Justice would be fully met by the dismissal of the action with of the Board.

IN CRIMINAL SESSIONS.

(Before Sir James Russell, Chief Justice.) THE MURDER CASE.

Mr. Robinson asked that the charge of murder against Lam A Sik, which was the first case set down for hearing at the present sessions, might be postponed for a week, and that a special jury might be impanelled.

The Attorney-General (Mr. W. M. Goodman) had no objection. His Lordship therefore fixed Monday, the 26th inst., for the hearing of the case.

Chan You was charged with stealing seven pieces of clothing, valued at $6, the property of Wong Fang on the 26th December last.

The Attorney-General prosecuted. The prisoner, who was undefended, pleaded not guilty.

The following were the jurors:—Otto Schrimer. . M. Figuerido, A. D. Death, F. H. A. Fuchs, Chang Hing Lun, R. N. Volly and A. H. dos Remedios.

The Attorney-General said the facts of the case were very simple. The complainant was an amah and about 7 am. on the day in question she left seven pieces of clothing in a basket at her house. No. 17. Old Briley Street. On returning to the house about 8 a.m. she found the basket had been broken open and the clothing and a small sum of money missing. About 7.30 a.m. a Japanese woman saw the prisoner running away with a bundle of clothing and raised an alarm. A Chinese constable gave chase and the prisoner was arrested in Caine Road. Evidence was then given by the complainant and Chinese constable 172, who made the arrest. The jury found the prisoner guilty. The prisoner admitted seven previous convictions for larceny and his Lordship sentenced him to two years' imprisonment with hard labour.

Yung Kam was charged with feloniously stealing $1,200 the property of Chang Ching Fung, on the 28th December last. The prisoner pleaded not guilty.

The Attorney-General prosecuted and said the prisoner had been living with the complainant for about three months, sleeping in a room on the first floor of the premises. At noon on the day in question the complainant saw the money deposited in the safe and at about 3 p.m. the same day, having occasion to again go the safe, he found the money missing. Information was given to the police and the prisoner was arrested about 6 p.m. on the premises, the money being found between some boards above the prisoner's bed. The money being found where it was naturally led to the supposition that it had been stolen by the prisoner or that he had received it from someone by whom it had been extracted from the safe, and the onus of proof was thrown upon the prisoner to account as to how he came by it, and if he could not give a satisfactory account the jury would be justified in finding the prisoner guilty of stealing

The complainant said the safe was in the accountant's room and about 2.15 p.m. on the 28th December he opened the safe to get a draft for a friend. After speaking with his friend for half-an-hour he returned to the sale when he found the money had disappeared. No other person was present but his friend and himself. A partition separated the accountant's room from the shop, and after missing the money witness saw a plank had been removed from the bottom part of the partition, which made an aperture large enough to admit a person getting through. By his Lordship.—The prisoner slept alone in the room where the money was found. could not say if any other person had access to the room.

Chang Wa Fang, a witness who gave important evidence at the Magistracy, falled to Evidence was given by the policeman who arrested the prisoner and found the money in his room.

The prisoner in his defence denied stealing the money and said he did not know anything about it or how it came to be found in his room. The jury returned a unanimous verdict of not guilty" and the prisoner was discharged. The Sessions were adjourned till so a.m.

THE GREEN ISLAND CEMENT COMPANY, LIMITED.

An extraordinary meeting of the shareholders of the above company was held at the Hongkong Hotel to-day. There were present :-Messis, Creasy Ewens, (General Manager) J. B. Gomes, H. G. James, C. L. Remedios, G. Fenwick, J. Foreman, J. D. Hutchison, F. W. Cross, W. Judd. D.D. O'keele, L. Poesnecker, Ho Tung and T. Arnold.

The Chairman-This meeting has been called to confirm the special resolution which was passed at the meeting on the 3rd inst. The resolution was that the Articles of Association of the Green Island Cement Company, Limited, be amended by adding at the end of Article o the words following:-"Any Share in respect of which all the Instalments shall not have been paid on or before the Sixteenth day of January, 1891, shall be forfeited, and any Shares so forfeited shall be deemed to be the absolute property of the Company and may be re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the General Manager shall determine, and any Member whose Shares shall have been forfeited shad, notwithstanding such forfeiture, be liable to pay to the Company all Instalments due in respect of such Shares at the time of forfeiture." Imove that the resolution be confirmed.

Mr. James seconded. Mr. Gomes-Will you be able to enforce the payment of the shares or get anything from proceedings.

The Chairman—Yes, certainly. I understand you do not object to the resolution? Mr. Gomes-No.

The Chairman-I declare the resolution passed. I now beg to propose that the appointment of Messre. Arnhold, Karberg & Co., as General Managers, be confirmed.

Mr. G. Fenwick asked if Messrs. Arnhold, Karberg & Co. were prepared to complete and retain the present plant and turn out a quantity of 40 tons of cement per day for about $40,000? The Chairman said there was no doubt from the share list that they could get $40,000, and he understood Messrs. Arnhold, Karberg & Co.

were going in at once and advance $10,000, but he did not see any necessity for a greater sum. Mr. Gomes asked if the General Managers would take proceedings to recover the payment of shares.

The Chairman said they would do their Mr. Judd then seconded the resolution, which was carried nam. con.

Mr. L. Poesnecker returned thanks for the same and said he had every confidence in their success to turn out 40 tons per day. The meeting then closed.

THE HONGKONG HOTEL COMPANY, LIMITED.

An extraordinary meeting of shareholders in the above named company was held at the company hotel this afternoon. There were present Me sis. D. MacCulloch (Chairman); P. Ryrie, . H. and several others. The Chairman said the notice of the meeting and copies of the special resolutions to be passed had been in the hands of the shareholders for some time past. In the first place it was proposed to sub-divide the 6,000 $100 shares of the company into $50 shares. Then it was intended to increase the capital, That, he was of opinion, should be done to meet what was about to become due on the debentures e. g. on the 19th of April next. The proposed changes would enable the company not only to pay off its debts but also meet the cost of the new buildings new in course of erection. The present capital, $300,000, was too small to meet the extensive requirements of the company. .. The Chairman then moved the adoption of the fir t resolution; namely, "That the present 3,000 shares of $100 each be sub-divided into 6,000 shares of $50 each to be numbered 1 @ 6,000." Mr. Rutter seconded and it was carried unanimously. The Chairman then moved that .- "That the capital of the Hongkong Hotel Company, Limited, be increased from $100,000 to $600,000 by the creation of 6,000 new shares of $50 each to be issued at twenty per cent, premium or

Mr. Phillippo-I have very great pleasure in seconding the amendment as I consider it is very reasonable.

The Chairman-The resolution is put to the meeting because it is necessary to get funds to meet the company's liabilities. I have no doubt that it was the best policy to pursue—to find the money they wanted themselves. I have no doubt that the present capital is too small.

Mr. Cox—It simply amounts to the shareholders finding the money forthemselves instead

Hongkong v. S. C. C.: Begun on oth January. The S. C. C. first innings was 156. The Match, Hongkong v. Singapore, was commenced on the Esplanade this morning (the o'l inst.) on a fine, fast wicket, and under conditions which were in every respect favourable for good cricket. The home team won the toss and electing to bat first, sent in W. L. Carter and R. G. Watson to face the bowling of Barff and Lowson. The former opened by sending down a maiden, and the running commenced by a couple of singles being scored off Lowson's first over. Off the first ball of Barff's second over Carterwas caught by Lowson in the slips. 5-1-0. Birch following in cut one from Lowson, which was smartly fielded by Dunn, and Watson was run out. 6-2-5. Higginbotham and Birch punish the bowling. Several changes were just enough to knock the bails off. 65-3-32, Lieut. Lloyd joined Birch who shortly afterwards again escaped being caught by Darby at long off. Just a couple of overs following, Birch skied one off Lammert to Cor. Rice at long off, far cut. The fielder had no need to move an inch but simply waited on the catch and missed it amidst the wildest enthusiasm of the spectators. Lowson assumed charge the leather at the pavilion end and the first he Lloyd who gave way to Hornby. 87-4-7. Birch mounted two balls in succession from Lowson to forward short leg and still he was allowed to remain. Hongkong had revenge in the next over, however, for Birch stepping out to slog a slow one from Lammert promptly had his wickets put down by Blair. 91-5-39. During his stay at the wickets, Birch had been blessed with an unusual amount of luck, and the frequent chances which were as frequently missed seemed to incline one to the opinion that he was going to carry out his bat. His relief, J. Cook, who yesterday in recovering himself after attempting to play a ball, had his wicket put down, commenced quite stylishly to-day, by cutting his fust off Lammert to the boundary for four. The fast running which had been instituted by Birch and Higginbotham now ceased and four successive maiden overs were agreeably relieved by Cook driving Lowson for three, and cutting Lammert for a brace, and hitting him for a single, which brought the century up on the telegraph. A run of twos, and a single were added to Cook's credit, when he was caught by Barff in the slips off Lammert. 109-6-15. A P. Talbot joined Hornby, and Barff was put on at the pavilion end. Hornby hit Barff to leg for a deuce and Talbot cut Lammert for a similar number, when Hornby made his first hit by driving Barff to the leg boundary. Talbot narrowly escaped being caught at mid on off Lammer who was sending down a very slow break ball, that had to be treated with marked respect. brought the score up to 120. On the adjournment for tiffin the score stood at 124 for six

When play was resumed after tiffin, Lowson went on at at the pavilion end and Barif at the far end. The former, who had to contend against a strong wind, opened to Hornby who scored a single off the over. Hornby was clean bowled by the last ball in Barff's over. 129-7-11. Dr. Hinde followed in, and a couple of maiden evers were sent down. The first ball of the third over from Lowson beat Talbot who retired in favour of Saunders leaving the score unaltered, 129 9-0. Saunders played one ball, but Lowson "yorked" him with the next, 129-9-0. A. J. Ross filled the vacancy and saw through the over without scoring. LONDON, December 17th. When Minister Lincoln went away from here to bury his Abraham in America he told several prominent Americans, whom he had no reason for deceiving, that he had no intention of resigning his place as Minister to the Caurt of St. James. He said that he intended to return and fixed within a few days the probable date of his return. In fact, Minister Lincoln left matters in such a shape here that he would be obliged to come b ck, if only to "put his house in order! for his successor. During the last few days the rumor has gained ground in London that Minister Lincoln's seturn simply means to close up his official affairs prior to his final departure. Certain tociety people here have been industriously circulating hints from "authoritative private sources" in America that Minister Lincoln would resign after the 1st of January and that William Walderf Aster would succeed him as minister. It would hardly be fair to say that these reports are due to a suggestion dropped by Mr. and Mrs. Astor since their arrival here, but they have not taken the slightest pains to contradict them. At the same time there is no doubt that no Minister could come here on the salary allowed him by the United States Government and hope to entertain in a manner comparing with the diplomatic representatives of other nations. There are scores of men and women in London, and among them some Americans, who will repeatedly spend more money in giving one dinner or ball than the yearly, salary of the best entertainer among the diplomats in London is M. He declined to estimate the liabilities or assets, but was of the opinion that every claim would be paid in full. They have been negotiating for some time, he said, for a reorganization either as a State or a national bank, and expected to reorganize without stopping business. It had been found, however, that it would be impossible in a short time to raise the necessary funds to continue the business with safety, pending reorganization. It was thereupon determined to accept the anext wisest course-suspension, "Our business," continued Kean, "has grown too rapidly during the last year or two for our capital and the stringency of the money market made it impossible for us to turn our securities again at once after we had found money on them, Our

For the eleven months there is an increase of close upon 6,000,coolbs. in the quantity sent to China and Hongkong, but Japan and the Straits Settlements have both taken less, Taking the total of all kinds of piece goods a very satisfactory increase, amounting to over 10,000,000 yards, is to be noted in the case of China and Hongkong while Japan and the Philippine Islands both show smaller totals. There is a slight increase in the exports to the Dutch East Indies and the Straits Settlements. For the eleven months there is an important increase of close upon 90,000,000 yards in the export to China and Hongkong; but this larger increase, satisfactory as it is, is considerably discounted by the falling-off in the quantities exported to Japan, the Philippine Islands, and the Dutch East Indies. The Straits Settlements have taken some 30,000,000 vards more than in the corresponding period of 1889. The linen trade with the Philippine Islands continues to fall away, the export last month heing over 200,000 yards less compared with November last year: Taking the eleven months the decrease amounts to about 1,500,000 yards compared with the eleven months of 1880. Appreciable increases are to be noted both for the month and the eleven months in the exports of woollen and worsted tissues. In metals there is a falling off for months in the quantity of mixed and yellow metal sent to China and Hongkong. The returns for the eleven months, however, only show a trifling reduction on the figures of the similar period of last year, and Chinahas taken very little railway material during the eleven months for which we now have returns; and a decrease in this class of manufacture sent to Japan is also observable, so far as the month is concerned, but for the eleven months there is a slight increase. Turning to imports we have again to note a failing-off in the value of the tea imports from China, both for the month and eleven months. The value of the silk imports from China show a decrease of about £75,000 for last month compared with Nov. of 1889. For the cleven months the decrease amounts to about £450,000. The direct import of silk from Japan has now practically ceased, so that it is not surprising that the total value of the quantity imported for the eleven months is only £9,716 against £155,544 in 1839, and £289,524 in 1838.

PUGILISTICA.

The latest news from Slavin is that he is anxious to go to San Francisco and fight Jim Corbett in the California Club in March for a $10,000 purse and a side bet of $5,000. As stated in the Chronicle a week ago, Joe Tompson, the Australian bookmaker, telegraphed Slavia to inquire if he would meet Corbett in the United States Minister amounts to. Perhaps the | California Club, Slavin, having confidence in his countryman, responded cheerfully, and an entirely different aspect is therefore given to the negotiations for an international glove battle. As matters stood before it seemed impossible to move Slavin from England. He was reported to have taken root in a prosperous alchouse and any aspiring slogger who wanted to wrest the pugilistic laurels from him would have to emigrate to Albion. According to the latest news, however, Slavin has no hesitation whatever about coming to America, so that everything now scems to hinge on Corbett's action in the matter.

Corbett has already declared himself too boldly to be able to back out of the match if he desired to do so. The young professor, however, really believes that a match with Slavin is about the best contract he can get. He sent on $1000 to New York for Slavin to cover some time ago. The only trouble appears to be that Corbett wants the match set for some far distant date. The young Californian has a shrewd regard for the American dollar and thinks he can make money next year by travelling with a theatrical company for several months and fighting Slavin at the end of the season. Corbett has already signed a contract with Charles Stenzel, the backer of the threatical venture, to go on the road in May. Stenzel does not like to have his arrangements upset by a match in advance of his tour of the States, and the California Club. of course, would prefer to have the battle take place far ahead of the date Stenzel and Corbett originally thought best, namely, next October or November.

Corbett regards Slavin as a far less scientific fighter than Jackson, and thinks that if he can stand the conqueror of Joe McAuliffe off for half a dozen rounds he can certainly defeat him. Corbett is ready to fight Slavin for a $10,000 purse and to bet $5,000 more on the of the white Australian is evidently not as high as his opinion of the colored champion.
